1 Richardson L. CHANDLER Sr.

Death: Jul 14, 1795, North Carolina
Sep 30, 1859, Calhoun County, Alabama
Father: James CHANDLER Sr. (1761-1808)
Mother: Elizabeth Ann STOVALL (1769->1850)

It seems that Richardson is listed as "Reuben" Chandler on the 1850 Benton County Alabama census. Don't know why he is listed as Reuben. He is age 55 born in North Carolina. All the rest of the family are listed by initials only. They are F. female age 54 born in VA., S. Brown age 20 female, M. age 19 male, L. age 17 female, R. age 14 male. Living next door to them is T. or P. Chandler age 33 male, L. age 32 female, B. age 10, male, F. age 8 male, W. age 4 male, Tho. age 2 male, J. 3 months, male. Then living next door to them is R. L. age 22 male and D. age 22. Female.

In 1840 he is listed as Rich'd Chandler on the Benton County, Alabama census. He is between age 40/50. Others in the family are a male between age 5-10 one 10-15, one 15-20, females are one under 5, one 5-10, one 10-15, one 15-20, one 20-30 and one 30-40.

From notes I took from the Bessie Coleman Robinson Collection on Chandlers [my note: you can find this online from the Alabama Room]

John stated that his brothers, Joseph, Shadrack and Obidiah all served with him during the Rev. War. [my note: these were all alleged sons of Joel Chandler/Agnes Leigh .]

When John died, the only surviving child was Mrs. Ritta Taylor, wife of James Taylor of Anniston, Benton Co. AL. Ritta and James both were born in 1810 in SC

Ritta Chandler Taylor inherited a slave, Reuben, from her father, John Chandler that Ritta's husband wanted to sell. There was a court hearing in 1852, James Taylor vs. Branch Bank of Huntsville. (Spring term of Chancery Court Alabama Supreme Court Book 20, page 244. [my note: I don't know the outcome of this suit.]

John Chandler had a nephew Joel Chandler who lived in GA.

Other names mentioned but relationships not identified were:

- Bailey Chandler d. 1847
- Emory Chandler
- Littleberry Chandler
- Richard(son) Chandler
- William Chandler

All of these at one time lived west of Jacksonville and owned land.

[my note: If these individuals were part of John Chandler's family either sons or grandsons, then somewhere along the line at least one of these individuals, Richardson Chandler has been given to the wrong family as I have been assured that Richardson Chandler was the son of James Chandler, Sr, and Elizabeth Ann Stovall. A "Littleberry" was the son of Richardson Chandler and he died in 1879 W. Monroe, Ouachita Parish, Louisiana.]

In Richardson Chandlers estate papers there is mention of a Louisa Chandler, [my

Richardson Chandler

note: no one that I know of has given him a daughter by the name of Louisa. This Louisa seems to have married a Frederick Steed. and they had a son Calvin Steed.]

Others named were:

Susan Hogan wife of John H. Hogan

Moses Chandler

Maria Edwards wife of Stephen Edwards

Martha Brown wife of Ransom Brown [my note: Peter Ransom Brown]

Louisa Steed wife of Frederick Steed [my note don't have a dtr listed named Louisa for Richardson. They had son Calvin Steed b. 1822 died Oct 1892 all three buried at Oak Level Cemetery]

Calvin Chandler

Berry Chandler [this is probably Littleberry Chandler.]

Stephen Chandler

Rebecca Liner wife of Simeon Liner

[my note: why wasn't Lemila Chandler Liner mentioned? She was sister to Rebecca and they married brothers, with Lemila marrying John Mason Liner.] [second note, Mary "Polly" Liner married Wyatt Jackson Chandler.]

Poseys, Honeas and Chandlers all came as a group from GA. they were all originally from SC. [my note: the only Poseys I have listed in the Chandler files are married into my Chandler lines. Need to check further into this. Am not familiar with Honeas.]

Sale of land of Bailey Chandler deceased, James Taylor Executor. Oct 26, 1847. There was 200 acres involved.

Letters left in Post offices:

Jacksonville P. O.

Hampton Chandler June 30, 1831

James L. Chandler Dec 12, 1843

Letters at W. P (??) Post office

Israel Chandler Oct 7, 1840 [my note have been trying in the past few months to find out who this Israel Chandler was]

[2nd note, wonder if anyone ever clamed these letters and if not where would they be today? Something to think about.]

There was an A. D. Chandler who was a school trustee, and later elected commissioner of roads Dist 3.

Then there are mentions of Emory Chandler Oct 25, 1838 39.96 acres of land and William Chandler Nov 12, 1838 39.70 acres of land

In Cleburne Co. Pleasant Hill Primitive Baptist, McElroy-Parks Chandler, Crumptions [my note: as always when my Chandlers are mentioned there is never a DATE listed. But this seems to be Parks Chandler (John Parks Chandler) son of Elza Chandler/Elizabeth Johnson who married Mary L. McElroy. Were several marriages between my line of Chandlers and McKleroy/McElroy family.

It is believed by descendants that Jasper was not a son, possibly a grandson.

August 12, 2006

Most of my CHANDLER research - and I used the term loosely - was done about ten years ago as an enthusiastic neophyte, meaning that I did a very poor job of recording my sources.

One source that shows multiple uses of the name "Richardson" is the marriage records of Benton Co which show not only his own marriage, his second, to Polly DOWDY in 1853 but also the marriages at which he was the officiating preacher.

I believe my g.g.grandparents, Stephen CHANDLER and Nancy WARREN, only had ten children. I've seen an eleventh one, "Jasper," listed but I believe him to be spurious.

Records of Benton Co AL show: "Feb 01, 1856 Stephen Chandler appted Guardian of Jasper Burgess, minor heir of Elizabeth R Burgess, decd & grndson of Brittan Moore."

I do not know what, if any, relationship existed between Jasper BURGESS and Stephen CHANDLER. I believe, though, that this is the "Jasper" that has been shown as a son.

shall meet you in the land where pain and sorrow cannot enter and where there will always be peace and love.

Simeon Bennet Liner, who married Lemila's younger sister Rebecca.

47. Simeon Bennett<sup>6</sup> Liner (Christopher Dickson<sup>5</sup>, Christopher Dickson<sup>4</sup> Lyner, Sr., Henry<sup>3</sup>, Sylvester<sup>2</sup>, Silvester<sup>1</sup>) was born May 29, 1832 in Carroll County, Georgia, and died February 17, 1862 in Mobile, Alabama. He married Rebecca Chandler November 20, 1851 in Benton County, Alabama, daughter of Richardson Chandler and Frances Shields. Source: James Power (Jim) Liner

Simeon and Rebecca were married by Bartlett Owen, Justice of the Peace. They lived in Benton County (renamed Calhoun County in 1859) and in Haralson County, Georgia. Simeon enlisted in the Confederate Army on 1 Oct 1861 as a private in "E" Company of the 22nd Alabama Infantry, which was made up of men from Lowndes County, Alabama. The 22nd was organized at Montgomery, Alabama during late October and early November 1861. They were ordered to report for duty at Richmond, Virginia but for some unknown reason the orders were changed and the unit moved to Mobile, Alabama instead. On 1 Feb 1862, the unit reported to the Army of Mobile Infantry. Simeon died from cholera in Mobile just nine days before the regiment was ordered to Corinth, Mississippi. He was buried on the Mobile battlefield at the foot of a beech tree. On his Pay Account of a Deceased Soldier dated 8 Dec 1862, Simeon, is described as follows: 27 years old, dark eyes, dark hair, dark complexion, five feet ten inches high. After the War Between the States, Rebecca, who was now a widow with two young sons sold or exchanged her 200 acres of land for a wagon. She went to Louisiana where her older brothers, Littleberry and Stephen Chandler were living. Traveling with her were her brother, Moses, sister, Susannah (CHANDLER) Hogan, and brother-in-law, James Madison Liner and their families. She lived with Littleberry in Jackson Parish, Louisiana and then rented the McGehee place near Douglas, Lincoln Parish, Louisiana. Later, Rebecca bought forty acres of land. When her youngest son, Christopher, was a young man she sold the forty acres and sent him to a university in Atlanta, Georgia. After his schooling, he returned to Louisiana to teach in Jackson Parish. In 1900, Rebecca was living with her son, Wyatt, and his family in Lincoln Parish. Rebecca died following the deaths of her two sons in August and September. They all succumbed to a typhoid
